

Find the synonyms:

1) process (v): if you process something, you change it from its natural state to something that is ready to use. (2 words)

-refine, process, technique, unstable, prepare, analysis, figure, activity, concept.

2) financial (adj): a financial problem, issue or activity is about money. (2 words)

- value, usable, analysis, fiscal, monetary, study, guess, technique, examine.

3) specific (adj): a specific, idea, person, group etc..., is the one that is of interest, or when someone knows exactly which one they are talking about. (3 words)

-definite, analysis, monetary, study, technique, guess, precise, particular, usable.

4) research (n) is the process or result of trying to find an answer by reading, interviewing, watching, or doing experiments. (2 words)

Technique, definite, precise, analysis, guess, study, usable, changeable, process.

5) Sector (n): a sector is a part, or division of an area, especially part of the economy. (3 words)

Division, part, process, changeable, analysis, definite, area, study, precise.

6) Individual (n): an individual is a single person looked at separately from others. (2 words)

Human, analysis, precise, changeable, part, division, study, person, definite.

7) Data (n): data is information, such as facts, numbers, photographs, etc. (1 word)

Study, changeable, human, person, information, part, division, analysis, definite.

8) Principle (n): principles are personal rules that tell you what is wrong and right. (1 word)

Division, fiscal, refine, belief, prepare, study, information, monetary, definite.

9) Variable (adj): if something is variable, it can change. (2 words)

Unstable, changeable, information, prepare, refine, fiscal, definite, study, division.

10) Method (n): if you use a method to achieve a goal, then you use a planned process. (3 words)

Process, refine, fiscal, way, division, study, information, changeable, technique.

11) Available (adj): if something is available, it exists and you can use it. (2 words)

Division, information, fiscal, way, study, refine, technique, usable, ready.

12) Estimate (v): if you estimate the number, value, amount, size, cost, etc. of something, you guess based on incomplete information. (1 word)

Fiscal, technique, guess, refine, information, ready, usable, way, study.