Activity Three: Transform the following parenthetical citations into narrative citations. You can paraphrase the quote or introduce it using single phrases. Change what is necessary. These quotes are taken from Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness. Quote A: " 'We called at some more places with farcical names, where the merry dance of death and trade goes on in a still and earthy atmosphere as of an overheated catacomb...'" (Conrad 68) =) (The character Marlow showing his disdain for imperialism) Quote B: " 'Being hungry, you know, and kept on my feet too, I was getting savage.' " (Conrad 79) =) (The character Marlow speaking of the negative impact of the jungle on the individual) Quote C: "But his soul was mad. Being alone in the wilderness, it had looked within itself, and, by heavens! I tell you, it had gone mad. I had—for my sins, I suppose—to go through the ordeal of looking into it myself.' " (Conrad 140) =) (The character, Marlow, describes his ordeal with Kurtz).
